The first of these is the fact that the system is not a simple one, but a complex one, involving many factors which are not yet fully understood.
 The second is that the system is not a static one, but a dynamic one, which is constantly changing and evolving. The third is that the system is not a uniform one, but a heterogeneous one, with many different parts and components.

My dear Sir, I have the pleasure to inform you that the first volume of the "History of the County of Gloucester" is now ready for the press. It contains a full and complete account of the county, from the earliest times to the present day. It is written in a clear and concise manner, and is well illustrated with maps and woodcuts. It is a work of great value to the public, and I trust it will be well received.
